

Kable McAlpine

Kable is from Southeastern Indiana and began his hunting career there in the town of Vevay, Indiana. He began hunting and fishing when he was 10 years old and his passion began to grow from there. When McAlpine was 16 he began shed hunting where he increasingly progressed leading him where he is today. He currently hunts around 50-60 deer a year which has increased through experience and learning to become more efficient. His primary focus for hunting is in Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky. McAlpine is currently 43 years old and living in his hometown of Vevay, Indiana where he does the majority of his hunting.

McAlpine has also branched out into the filming industry. He has worked with Dr. Grant Wood in his production of GrowingDeer.TV. He is currently affiliated with Hank Parker and his production of Flesh and Blood TV. His kill of a particular deer, Big Bernie, will be featured on Flesh and Blood TV. McAlpine searched and collected information on Big Bernie for four years that finally ended in a kill of the deer in 2015.

In the Deer Turkey and Waterfowl show, McAlpine will be featuring Big Bernie and will further discuss the process of finding and killing him. He will also focus on shed hunting for beginners. This will include what times of the year you should be looking and where you should be looking for the sheds. McAlpine will also be bringing his best sheds and mounts for demonstration.
